LOTTO.

LOTTO is one of the most popular of all games. Its simplicity and interest recommend it alike to young and old. A Lotto game must contain a set of cards, laid off in numbered squares, and a set of ninety numbered pieces. Glass markers are usually added to the larger sets. The players each receive several cards and a portion of the markers. The leader draws the numbered pieces from the box, calling the numbers drawn. The players cover with markers all the numbers called which may be upon their cards. The one who first gets a row of numbers on one of his cards covered with glass markers, wins the game.

MECHANICAL VALENTINES.

This line is composed of the finest Valentines made. They are all put together in a very strong manner. When closed up they lie perfectly flat but on being opened various tiers of decorations arise of themselves in a striking manner. The subjects are chosen from every source, such as flowers that open, fairy coaches with opening doors, shrines concealing figures etc. The higher priced valentines are exceedingly handsome and elaborate. They are all printed in full and brilliant colors and gold, and furthermore are extra heavily embossed and cut out.

TO OUR FRIENDS IN THE TRADE and especially to our Friends in the Retail Trade on whom we rely chiefly for a continuance of our prosperity, we address the Catalogue of our 55th year's goods.

As heretofore we are still trying to make the best goods in the market at the lowest prices. We are satisfied that we have been successful and that an intelligent study of our entire line will convince any dealers that it is the best and cheapest offered.

Therefore we ask a careful reading of our Catalogue so that our goods may be quickly recognized and compared with others both as to quality and cost. After that we are content to abide by the judgment of the purchaser.
